ISSUE: APRIL 2024

Hi Everyone,

Summer is nearly here, and we are finally seeing some sunshine! April was a busy month at Coquet Vets, and we also reached our 7,000th patient registration! We also have a few new faces at reception and recently welcomed Nicole to the team. Find out more about Nicole in this month's newsletter.

Our geriatric month was a great success, with a mix of dogs and cats benefiting from the consultation promotion over April. As we move into May, we are shifting our focus to 'Veterinary Nurse Awareness Month'. We have an amazing team of veterinary nurses, including three qualified nurses and one student nurse.

Nurse consults include anal gland emptying, all post-operative surgery checks, vaccinations, librela injections, and lots more. Veterinary nurses also monitor anaesthetics, clean wounds, and do bandaging and x-rays. Some of our nurses have also been on Schedule 3 courses, which means they can do minor surgeries.

May is the month to celebrate our nurses and all the fantastic work they do. Find out more about our nurse team here.

We know that it can be very stressful when your pet has an unexpected injury or illness, especially in the current economic climate. To prepare for the unexpected, we recommend getting your pet insured or putting money aside. To help you make the best decision for you and your pet, revisit our article "Pet Insurance - Is It Worth It?".

We also offer 5-weeks of free pet insurance for puppies and kittens. We always offer this at first and second vaccination appointments. If you want to take advantage of this, please call us and book in to see one of our vets for a free pet check.

Finally, here are some dates for your diary! We are excited to be hosting a puppy training course, which starts in July. See our news page for more information. We are also hosting our Warkworth Show at Warkworth Castle on Saturday 17th August. We will once again host the dog show and 'terrier racing' (all breeds are welcome) down at the moat.

We look forward to seeing you at your next visit to the practice.

SAVE THE DATE: WARKWORTH SHOW - SATURDAY 17TH AUGUST 2024

This year's Warkworth Show will be held on Saturday, 17th August, from 10am at Warkworth Castle. The show is a great day out for families, and you can bring your dogs along for the Dog Show.

Early ticket sales will be available from Coquet Vets and other local shops from June.

Don't forget to add the date to your diary!

TEAM UPDATE: MEET NICOLE CONNING!

We are delighted to welcome Nicole to our Coquet Vets team. Nicole is our new Veterinary Receptionist, so many of you may have met her already.

Nicole grew up in Northumberland and has lived there all her life. She has always had a love for animals, especially when it comes to Highland Westies or Cockapoos.

In her spare time, she likes to go for walks, go exploring, and try new things, but she also likes to find time to read and relax.

Make sure you say 'hello' to Nicole on your next visit.
